Our Mission Statement

"Visual artists and supporters encouraging and promoting the arts in the community"

Notes from your President

What a great Member Show! You entered 136 pieces of art and donated 20 pieces for the silent auction – thank you. Maryann Proctor and Ryoko Toyama did a fantastic job in preparation for the show. Their new way of preregistration made it so much easier to hang the show because the cards were preprinted and applied to each piece as it came in; believe me that saved a lot of time. Trying to place the cards after the pieces are hung takes such a long time. Believe me I speak from experience. Thank you to all the volunteers that made the show a success. I think we sold seven or eight pieces of art. Johanna Dargatz won the raffle basket worth $225.

Remember December 2nd is our Holiday Potluck so bring your plates and utensils as well as your dish. Also, don't forget to enter the Small Works Show at the MAC – drop off day is Nov 30th, 9 am to 12 noon at the Museum Exhibit Center. For more information or questions contact Linda Stadtmiller, at the MAC, 683-8110 or go to macsequim.org .

Well, this year is just about over. I have enjoyed my year as your president and I truly would have loved to continue if it were at all possible. I am thankful for all of you – I feel that you are my family; you are loved!

Sandra Cutsinger

Priscilla Messner-Patteron will be our presenter at the December 2nd Meeting

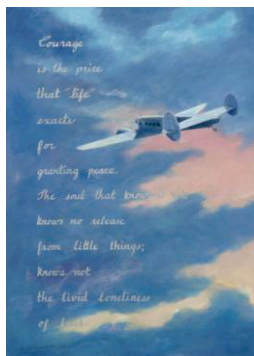

After living for 23 years on Kodiak Island in the Gulf of Alaska, Priscilla Messner-Patterson and her husband now make their home in Sequim, Washington northwest of Seattle.

While in Kodiak, Priscilla taught art at Kodiak College for nearly 18 years. She is a member of the American Society of Aviation Artists, the Canadian Aviation Artists Association, the Northwest Air Force Art Association and the Coast Guard and Air Force Art Programs. She also serves as the Education Chairman for the American Society of Aviation Artists.

Priscilla's work is featured in Alaska, Canada and the lower 48 states and has also been exhibited in Great Britain and The Netherlands. She was one of forty women featured in the 2002 issue of the Alaska Journal of Commerce. She has won awards and honors from the American Society of Aviation Artists, Simuflite and Aviation Week and Space Technology.

MEMBER'S SHOW REPORT

Our Member's Art Show and Sale went very well with 136 pieces entered and 61 participating Artists with approx. 580 people coming thru our Show. We tried a new method of how the show art was entered and received that made things so much faster for us and for you. I want to THANK YOU all for cooperating with us and for pre entering your work. This was so successful that from now on that will be the way this show is handled.

Thank you to all who were in charge of the major areas, Ryoko Toyama co-chair, Sherry Nagel, Cynthia Thomas, Pat Oden, Mary Franchini, Linda Stadtmiller, Kay Kay, Bob Lee, Sandra Cutsinger and Coffee & Pat Miklos. Bob Lee for setting up and taking down our Show Signs around town and our great set up crew coordinated by John Dach.

We were very fortunate to have so many wonderful items donated to our Silent Auction. I wish to thank everyone who donated items and Rebecca McKee who was in charge of the silent auction table and to tell all of you how much your help and donation was appreciated.

I also want to THANK all of you who worked as a Docents, all who helped by supplying the food or helped hang the Art or helped in any other way shape or form. You are all so appreciated, without you there is no Sequim Arts or Member's Show.

Catherine Mix's "Romancing the Clouds in Eastern Oregon" was the Winner of the People's Choice Award. Melissa Penic's "Poker Chicks" came in Second and Catherine Mix's "Sunset at Salt Creek" came in Third. Aren't we lucky to have such talented Artists as members of Sequim Arts.

If I have forgotten to Thank anyone please forgive me, I truly appreciate you.
